Recycled RAG MICE

Create your very own unique mice friends using all recycled fabric rags!

How to make: Adult Supervision Required.

Use the picture above as a reference.

The body:

- 1 - Carefully cut out two identical teardrop shaped pieces of fabric (approximately 3.5" x 5")
- 2 - Sandwich fabric together with the exterior sides facing each other.
- 3 - Stitch together leaving 1" of the bottom edge open.
- 4 - Turn connected fabric inside-out through the opening.
- 5 - Fill the body with dry rice.

The tail:

- 6 - Cut out a 7" long 1/4" wide strip of fabric (or a shoelace) and insert it 1" deep into the bottom opening of the body.

You will need::

- Fabric Swatches (for body and tail)
- Safety Scissors (for cutting fabric)
- Needle & Thread (for sewing)
- Dry Rice (for filler)
- Buttons (for eyes)

- 7 - Stitch the body closed securely over the tail to complete the mouse body.

The ears:

- 8 - Carefully cut out two identical mouse ear shapes (oval shapes with flat bottoms on the short curve side).
- 9 - Stitch ears into place approximately 2" up from the nose.

The eyes:

- 10 - Stitch two identical buttons in place approximately 1/2" below the ears toward the nose.
