CALYPSO TIME WITH SEBASTIAN!

Sebastian is a Caribbean Crab who loves making music! Like all musicians and composers, he's inspired by the sounds from his every day life. Since crabs live on land and in the sea, Sebastian gets plenty of terrific ideas from both!

WHAT IS CALYPSO?

Calypso is Sebastian's favorite kind of music! Calypso is a vibrant, energetic style of music that comes from the Caribbean nation of Trinidad and Tobago. For over 100 years Calypso musicians have used this type of music to tell their stories and entertain people at the same time.

MARACAS: sometimes called rumba shakers, are percussion instruments usually played in pairs. They consist of a dried gourd shell, leather or wood and filled with seeds or dried beans.

» Make your own maracas out of recycled plastic bottles!

GUITAR: a string instrument constructed from wood and strung with either nylon or steel strings.

» Make your own guitar out of a box, rubber bands and a pencil!

CALYPSO TIME!

Print out the following pages and follow the directions to make your own bottle maracas and box guitar!

Sebastian makes music from all the sounds he hears -- under the water and on the shore. When he combines them together, his music can make you feel like you are on a far-away tropical island. Music can take you on a journey, tell you a story, or make you smile. That's what Sebastian and all musicians like to do.
